

Please do not go along with the banker association's request and weaken the Wisconsin do not call list. Anything less than what we already have would be a travesty of justice. Leave well enough alone. Listen to the people and what they have to say. With four out of five people choosing not to have their privacy infringed upon should be proof enough as to what we really want. Hear us!!!